Qualifications and Skills

You will be a highly numerate graduate who has an interest in financial markets and ideally has some work experience in a similar or related field. A good communicator, whose strengths are their self-organisation and attention to detail. You will need to be able to work to tight deadlines and take a pro-active approach to your work.

Experience in, knowledge of and understanding of investment, pensions or actuarial work would be advantageous but not essential.

There will be the opportunity for you to study towards relevant professional qualifications to support your progress and development.

Role

You will be supporting the investment team in delivering a high-quality professional client service to both internal and external customers. Working as part of the investment team you will be instrumental in its ongoing development to attain profitable and sustainable growth through effective client management. Within the role you will obtain and record relevant, up to date investment information by liaising with fund managers and carrying out research and analysis.
